MARSHAL BLUECHER DEAD OR ALIVE?

Military Leader's Name Not Mentioned For Several Weeks

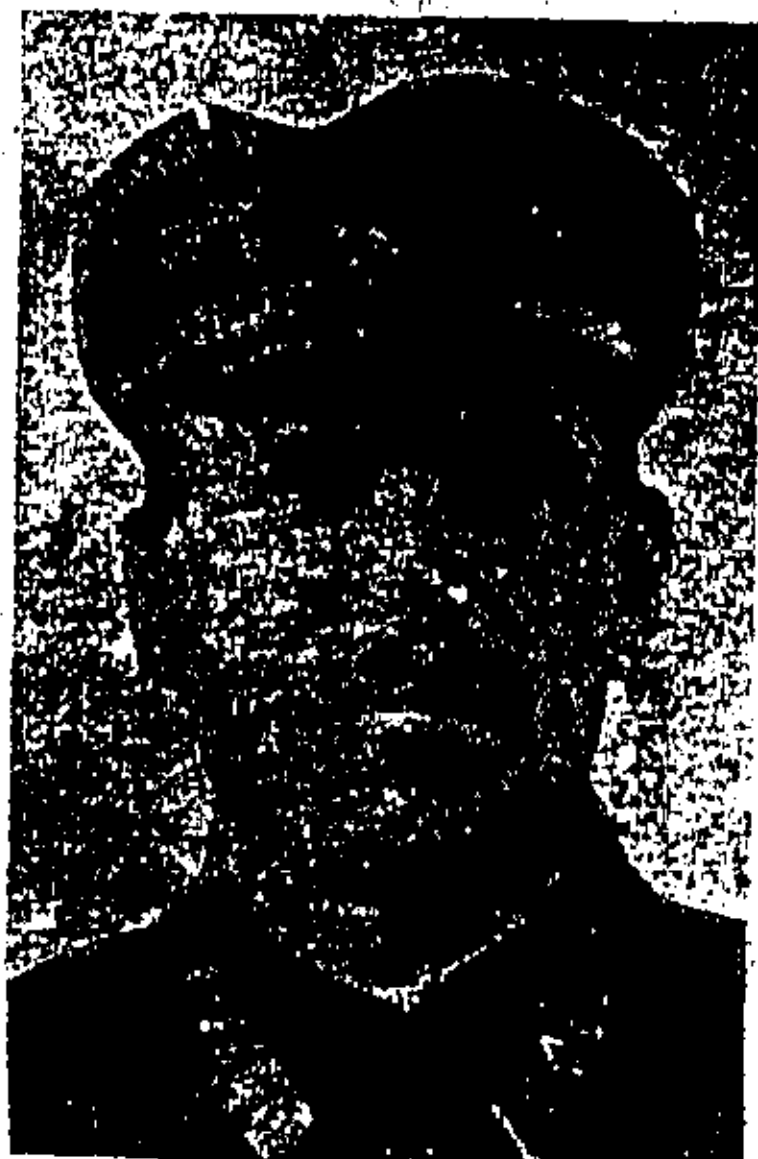

SENSATIONAL SUICIDE REPORT FROM TOKYO

Tokyo, October 6.

A Japanese News Agency message, which Reuter gives with all due reserve, states that according to unconfirmed information "reaching certain quarters in Tokyo," Marshal Vassily Bluecher, Commander-in-Chief of the Soviet Far Eastern Army, committed suicide in Moscow yesterday.

Nothing is known in Moscow of the Tokyo report which is regarded as probably inaccurate. The name of the Marshal has not been mentioned for several weeks in connection with Red Army conferences in the Far East.—Reuter.

Transocean says that the semi-official Japanese News Agency's report is not confirmed from any other source.

MARSHAL BLUECHER

A Reuter report from Tokyo states that Marshal Bluecher, apparently, is still alive as his portrait has not yet been removed from the Far Eastern Soviet Governmental offices nor from the gallery in Moscow, according to reliable information.

However, he certainly has fallen into disfavour with Comrade Stalin who is blaming him in connection with the Changkufeng incident, the same advises say.

The same information points out that the name of Marshal Bluecher recently has been conspicuous for its disappearance from Soviet newspapers and has also been excluded from the list of honorary members of the Communist Party Congress.—Reuter.

Practically all districts in eastern Shantung are now under Chinese control.—Central News.

Precautions for the civil population must be carried out thoroughly and must be extended to business firms, who had begun schemes for the protection of their work people, should press on steadily with them.—British Wireless.

The deceased's purse was robbed and the houseboy left the premises. Subsequently a reward of $250 was offered.—Reuter.

Cholera Now Subsiding

CAUTION SHOULD NOT BE RELAXED

"Although it would be a little premature to say that it is all over, there is no doubt whatever that the epidemic of cholera seems to be subsiding," the Hon. Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke, Director of Medical Services, told the "Daily Press" yesterday.

"There have been only eight cases in the last five days, which is the best returns we have had since the outbreak," he added.

Dr. Selwyn-Clarke revealed, however, that according to latest advice there was a severe epidemic in eastern Kwangtung, and repeated that caution should not be relaxed.

The health report for Wednesday shows four cases of cholera, four of dysentery and one each of measles and cerebro-spinal meningitis.

MARKED CHANGE IN TACTICS

Shanghai, Oct. 6.

A Japanese Army spokesman declared to-day that a marked change was seen in Chinese tactics. Until now provincial troops have been placed in the front lines with Central Government brigades backing them up, and recent developments show that Central forces have been placed at the front.

"Their resistance belies reports that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is withdrawing his troops to the interior and not put up a fight for Hankow," said the spokesman.—Reuter.

JAPANESE LOSSES IN YUANKU DRIVE

Chinese Preparations For Simultaneous Attacks

DESPERATE BATTLE AT TINGSIANG

Sian, October 6.

Chinese forces in south Shansi are preparing to launch simultaneous flanking and rear attacks on the Japanese troops who are attacking Yuanku, important town on the Shensi-Honan border. Confused fighting, it is stated, has already broken out at Yuanku.

The Japanese have suffered 5,000 casualties during their drive towards Yuanku in the past few days.

Meanwhile, on the Yungtsi sector in southwestern Shansi, no major fighting has taken place. Only desultory fire broke the silence of "No Man's Land."

Desperate fighting has been in progress at Tingsiang, northeast of Shensi, in the past few days. After suffering reverses at the hands of the Chinese, the invaders resorted to gas warfare in an effort to dislodge the Chinese on October 1.

Fighting has also occurred at Shensi and Kwosheng to the north.—Central News.

DONATIONS FROM HONGKONG

Chungking, Oct. 6.

More than $40,200 representing the funds raised by people in Shanghai and Hongkong, during the "Offer Gold" movement on August 13, the anniversary of the Shanghai hostilities, have been received by the National Government through the Central Bank of China.

BUDAPEST ASKED TO EXERCISE PATIENCE

Czech Reply To Hungary

Prague, Oct. 6.

The Czech Government, replying to the Hungarian Note demanding symbolic cession of part of her territory as a guarantee of good faith, asks Budapest to exercise patience.

The reply points out that reconstruction of the Cabinet and other internal political developments prevented the Government from giving consideration to the Hungarian demands.

Meanwhile, the irregulars who crossed the frontier into Felednice and attacked municipal buildings have been recalled by the Hungarian military authorities.

Both sides suffered casualties in killed and wounded during the skirmishes.—Reuter.

SPAIN NOT FOLLOWING PATH OF CZECHS

"Food Scarcity Will Not End War"—Del Vayo

Barcelona, October 6.

Spain is not following the path of Czechoslovakia, declared Senor Del Vayo, Republican Foreign Minister, in a broadcast to the United States this morning.

Senor Del Vayo said that Spain was more determined to fight till the country was free of invaders.

The Republican Foreign Minister predicted a "now perfection" for the Republican army within a few months despite the withdrawal of international volunteers.

"We are about to enter an extremely hard winter. Provisioning has been aggravated by the continual sinking of ships bearing food purchased by the Government with the greatest sacrifices," he added.

"Will those countries where wheat is so abundant that it cannot find a normal commercial outlet, watch the coming winter, impatiently while the Spanish people lack bread?" he asked.

PRISON DEATHS PROBED

Doctor Describes Unusual Case

Circumstances surrounding the death of two prisoners who died at the prison hospital on October 4 were probed at the Central Court yesterday. Mr. Houston sat as Coroner.

In the first inquest, Chief Warder J. W. Fitzgerald said that prisoner Lam Tim, who was to undergo a sentence of four years' imprisonment for possession of counterfeit coins, was admitted on February 18, and died at 3.20 a.m. on October 4.

Dr. G. I. Shaw said deceased was admitted to the hospital because he looked ill on October 3. The cause of death was primarily, acute appendicitis and, secondarily, peritonitis.

Dr. Shaw said that it was the most unusual case he had come across, as deceased did not complain of pain and there were no symptoms.

The jury, comprising Messrs. F. T. Tolle (foreman), J. H. Xavier and Li Chai-yung, returned a verdict of death by natural causes.

SECOND INQUIRY

A similar verdict was returned at the conclusion of the inquiry on the death of Chan Hon. Deceased was sentenced to four months' imprisonment on August 27 for breach of the Opium Ordinance. He was admitted to the hospital on September 13 and died on October 4. The cause of death, according to Dr. G. I. Shaw, was tuberculosis and heart disease. Deceased was also an opium addict.

The jury in the second inquiry comprised Messrs. A. M. Colman (foreman), W. To and G. C. Worrall.

FORGED NOTES CASE ADJOURNED

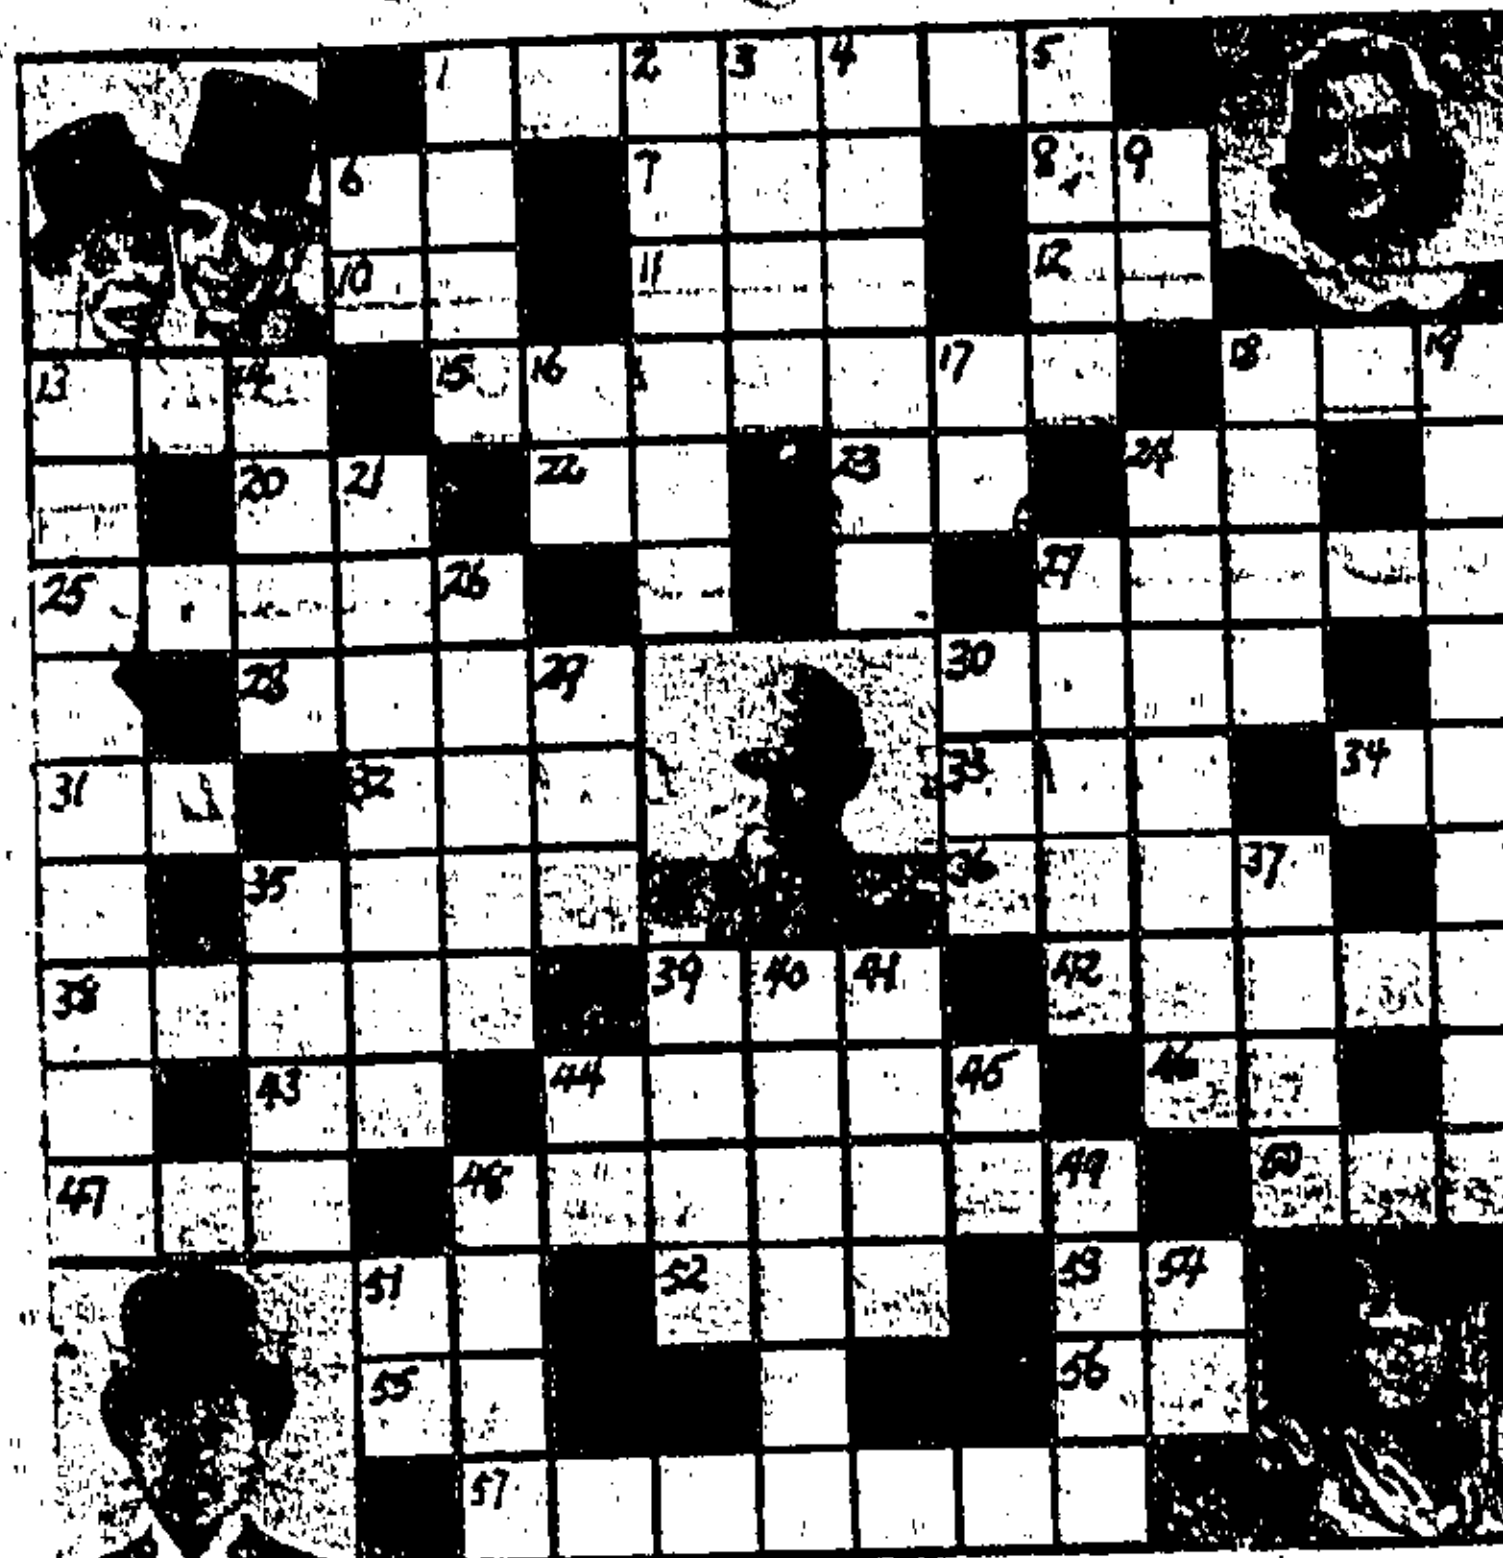

Chan Ming, aged 30, appeared before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday charged with uttering and unlawfully possession of forged banknotes.

On Detective-Sergeant Nolan's application the case was adjourned for 48 hours.

Mr. Peter H. Sin represented defendant.

Before the end of the year it will be necessary for Royal Academicians to find a new president. Sir William Leavellyn reaches the retiring age of 75 on Dec. 1. An idea exists in some quarters that an architect, not a painter, stands the best chance of being elected. Sir Edwin Lutyens, whose latest greatest design, the Roman Catholic Cathedral in Liverpool, is now steadily being translated into solid form, is "favourite" for the office.

ADVENTURES OF ROBIN HOOD

Of all the heroes of fact and fiction, there is none so beloved or dashing as Robin Hood, the outlaw of Sherwood Forest. Celebrated in song and story, in opera and in the silent movies, Robin now appears in brand new guise in "The Adventures of Robin Hood," a Technicolor film at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres to-day.

Errol Flynn, a veritable reincarnation of the legendary Robin, plays the title role. Handsome, young and adventurous, Flynn makes the perfect Robin Hood. Sharing honours with him is the demure, lovely Olivia de Havilland, portraying his lady love, Maid Marian.

Action and plenty of it is rampant throughout, from the jousting tournament at Nottingham Castle to the wedding of Robin and Maid Marian. Sherwood Forest, Nottingham Castle, and the countryside of medieval England are faithfully reproduced in vast sets, breath-taking in their beauty and opulence.

The splendid cast also includes Claude Rains, Ian Hunter, Paul Knobel, Eugene Pollette, Alan Hale (who played in the original Fairbanks version), Melville Cooper, Una O'Connor, Herbert Mundin, Montague Love, and the present world's champion archer, Howard Hill.

BUSY WORKING

Greta Garbo is acting in a film of the life of Madame Curie, the discoverer of radium.

EDMUND LOWE IN FINE ROLE

An exceptionally strong cast appears in the new London Film, "The Squeaker," which comes to the Majestic Theatre to-day. Edmund Lowe, the popular Hollywood star, has the chief role as ex-inspector Bafabul of Scotland Yard, a brilliant detective brought to the verge of ruin by drink. It is he who captures the mysterious underworld figure known and despised as "The Squeaker."

Appearing opposite Lowe in the principal feminine role is Ann Todd, the talented young British actress who is rapidly rising to the top. Her fiancée in the film is Sebastian Shaw, who created a big impression as Captain Reid in that very fine picture "Farewell Again."

COWBOY GETS LADY

As time marches on, and Sam Goldwyn hovers between The Cowboy and the Lady and The Lady and the Cowboy as the final title of his Merle Oberon-Gary Cooper picture, the film comes closer to completion.

The story is about a very rich and wilful young lady, Merle Oberon, who goes slumming at a rodeo, falls for cowboy Gary Cooper and marries him, after letting him believe that she's just an ordinary girl. The rest of the story is about the struggle for supremacy between the two.

In addition to Merle and Gary, the cast contains those two excellent character players, Patsy Kelly—always good for a spate of laughs—and Walter Brennan, who can be as quaintly Western as any radio range crooner.

FIGHT AGAINST MALARIA

Bandoung Centre Of Quinine

Have you ever remarked how all your friends in the East Indies have spent a longer or shorter time at Bandoung?

This has always led one to think that Bandoung must be considered as the centre of the Dutch East Indies, the town where everyone is happy, the Pearl of the East Indies.

Although places like Batavia and Sourabaya are much more important and have much greater populations, Bandoung is the town where holidays are spent, where one suddenly meets old friends after years of hard work in the bush and where health may be restored in a perfectly healthy and magnificent mountain climate in one of the most beautiful regions of Java, that of the Preang Regency.

Above all, Bandoung is the centre of mountain cultures, such as tea, coffee and cinchona, which have reached a degree of prosperity, hitherto unknown in the Preang district. Cinchona plays a particularly important part, for this culture has been able to develop perfectly in this region, owing to the favourable nature of the soil and the ideal climate.

INDISPENSABLE REMEDY

Whilst being the centre of the cinchona culture, Bandoung is equally well known by reason of the quinine which is extracted being an indispensable remedy. This may be concluded from the recommendations of the Malaria Commission, set up by the League of Nations, according to which a daily dose of 15 to 20 grains of quinine should be given, from 5 to 7 days to cure cases of malaria.

This Commission advises that as a preventive measure, a daily dose of 6 grains of quinine should be taken throughout the fever-season.

The interest that lies in quinine does not just stop at its use against malaria; this product is also of the greatest importance as a preventive of influenza. For this, a daily dose of 3 grains is required.

Since science has discovered that such dangerous and annoying maladies as influenza colds and influenza can be prevented by taking a small dose of the natural product, quinine, every day, the number of possible applications of this substance extracted from cinchona has been doubled.

COMMONS ASKED TO APPROVE PREMIER'S POLICY

Sir John Simon Argues
Government's Case

BRITAIN ENDANGERED, STATES LABOUR

London, October 6.
Amid resounding cheers, Sir John Simon, Chancellor of the Exchequer, yesterday moved a motion in the House of Commons approving of the policy of the Government whereby war was averted in the recent crisis and to support the Government's efforts to secure a lasting peace.

Sir John said that one lesson from the crisis, which was perhaps the greatest lesson of all, was that the mass of the people of every country were equally horrified at the prospect of war.

"We are all deeply conscious that war has been avoided and that Herr Hitler has again achieved the substance of his immediate declared aim without war," declared the Minister.

"The fortitude and calmness with which the Czechs faced their destiny was admirable. There was a dreadful choice before them. That choice was between ceding part of their territory, which we and France advised, and exposing their state to unlimited invasion and possible destruction."

"I wish to say quite plainly and firmly that the French Government and this Government did no injury to Czechoslovakia because we brought them face to face with that alternative. I must confess I have very great difficulty in believing the famous formula of President Wilson, can in all cases be satisfactorily applied."

"There is no provision in that formula for the fact that you might find in the same place people of extremely opposite attachments, races and views. President Wilson does not seem to have heard of the problem that birds of a feather don't necessarily flock together. There are enormous difficulties in applying the Wilsonian doctrine."

AGREEMENT UNDER PRESSURE

"Lord Runciman has said that until three or four years ago the Sudeten Germans lived in a situation of hopelessness and that the rise of Nazi Germany gave them new hope."

"It is true that the Munich Agreement was reached under pressure of the alternative of instant invasion of Czechoslovakia, but that is not reason enough for rejecting the Agreement and preferring that Europe should be plunged into war."

"I wish to strongly emphasise that the British Government is not contemplating an exclusive Four-Power Pact or to impose its will on Europe in disregard to other states and without communicating with them."

"It is hoped that Russia will be willing to join the guarantee to Czechoslovakia. The Government had no intention whatever of excluding Russia from any future settlements in Europe."

NEW FEATURES

Enumerating new considerations and new features emerging out of the crisis Sir John Simon declared:

"For the first time Herr Hitler has made some concession. It must be a very difficult thing for the head of a totalitarian State to retract—he is like a motor car which has no reverse gear."

"The British Government and most of the heads of the British Government are no longer an abstraction to Germany."

"Not all the machinery of Herr Goebbels could prevent the presence in Germany of the Prime Minister being known to the people."

"I think it is not without significance to Germany that no section of the British population through cowardice indicated that they were prepared for peace at any price or in any circumstances."

"If the totalitarian States imagined, as they may have done, that the democracies under such conditions would not unite they have now been disillusioned."

MOTION OF CENSURE

Mr. Arthur Greenwood (Labour) moved a motion of censure, stating that while the House was profoundly relieved that war had been averted for the time being, it could not approve of the policy of the Government which led to the sacrifice of Czechoslovakia under the threat of armed force, the humiliation of Great Britain and its exposure to grave dangers.

CZECH DEFENCES

The entire Czech defences are now being handed over intact, said the Prime Minister in reply to a question.

They were built, he said, with the assistance of French engineers and embody the principles of the Maginot Line. Most of the areas occupied by the Germans between October 1 and October 7 lie outside the main Czech defences.

The removal of guns and other materials from the ceded zones is being considered by the International Commission, said Mr. Chamberlain.—Reuter.

Spanish War Mediation Report

REPUBLICANS NOT LIKELY TO MODIFY
STATED TERMS

Barcelona, Oct. 5.
There is reason to believe that attempts at mediation in the Spanish war are pending.

There appears to be no inclination on the part of the Government, however, to modify its resolve to continue the conflict until victory is obtained on the basis of the 13 points laid down by the Premier, Dr. Juan Negrin last June.

Mediation might ensure the fulfilment of these points and therefore it is probable that the Government as well as the insurgents will find mediation the most practical solution in the near future.

The British Embassy at St. Jean de Luz states that it has not heard of any mediation plans beyond the conversations between Lord Perth and Count Ciano in Rome.

ITALIAN WITHDRAWAL
Regarding reports of a possible token withdrawal of Italian troops from the insurgent forces, there seems considerable evidence to show that this is correct.

The insurgent press bureau states that 1,000 Italian troops are leaving Algeiras at the beginning of next week but states that it believes this is a normal evacuation of casualties.

American correspondents from the front, however, declares that two Italian divisions have withdrawn from the front line.

On the Loyalist side the bulk of the international volunteers have already been withdrawn.—Reuter.

HERR HITLER'S BLOODLESS VICTORY

German Chancellor
Speaks To People

Berlin, Oct. 6.
Returning from his tour of the Sudeten areas, Herr Hitler again appeared at the Sports Palace yesterday and declared that "the German people have found their way back to honour!"

Herr Hitler recalled in his speech that when he assumed the leadership of the Reich, it was said that he was popular while in the opposition but when called to govern his popularity would wane and in six weeks would disappear.

"The past six years," declared the Chancellor, "have been the most decisive in German history. The most decisive factor in recent events is that the people backed me. In that way I succeeded in particular in the last six weeks."

GREAT AIM

"On May 28 I undertook a great aim and determined to achieve it because the entire German nation was ready for a supreme sacrifice."

"I sacrificed my private bourgeois comforts to the great aims of the nation. In the last months and weeks I have had a great helper in foreign affairs for whom I have already had occasion to thank God."

"That man who stood behind Germany is Signor Mussolini."

"I must also thank other statesmen who, in the last minute, realised the gravity of the situation and enabled me to give my hand to an understanding, but above all my gratitude is to the German people who have taken all measures necessary to enforce their just claim."

SUDETENS' CONDITION

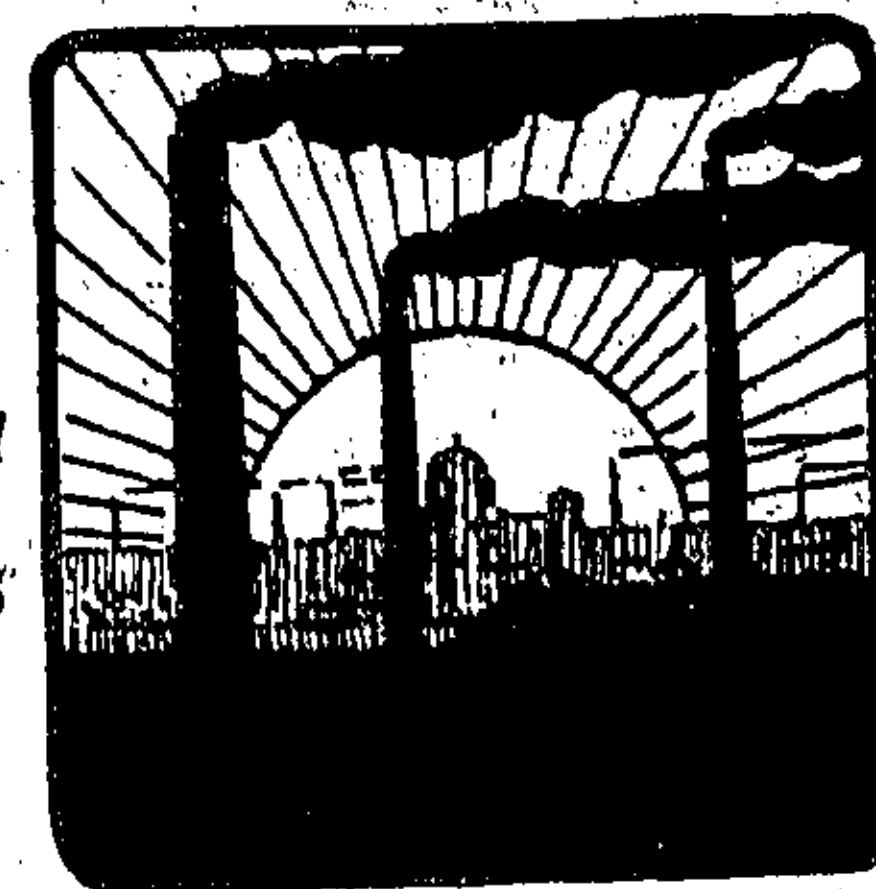

"When hundreds of thousands were drafted to labour and hundreds of thousands called to the Colours, no man went to the savings bank, no woman doubted. Nobody in the world will help us unless we help ourselves."

"Mr. Duff Cooper and Mr. Eden say that the Czechs have been badly treated; they should go themselves and see in the Sudeten areas the frightful misery I saw. It must be our duty to remove distress completely."

"It amazes me to have solved this problem of the Sudeten land without fighting. How many sacrifices would fighting have demanded of us? As long as the German people preserve their unity no one will dare attack us."—Reuter.

MACAO CELEBRATES NATIONAL DAY

MANY ATTEND RECEPTION AND DANCE AT GOVERNMENT HOUSE

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Macao, October 5.

Macao to-day celebrated the 28th anniversary of the foundation of the Portuguese Republic in 1910 when, after a short revolution, the Monarchy was overthrown. All Government and private offices were closed and the city was beflagged, while all public buildings and ships in harbour were illuminated during the evening.

At the stroke of noon, a "salvo" Song was played outside Government House by the Police band and drum band, while the national flag was raised on all public buildings, barracks, forts and warships at 8 o'clock.

At the stroke of noon, a Salvo of 21 guns was fired from the Monte Fort and the sloop, Goncalo Velho and Goncalves Zanco. At Government House a reception was held when H. E. the Governor of Macao, Dr. Artur Taminha de Sousa Barbosa, on behalf of his Government, received the felicitations of the public.

Later in the afternoon H.E. the Governor was host at a tea dansant in Government House, which was largely attended.

Among the guests were His Lordship the Bishop of Macao, the Rt. Rev. D. Jose da Costa Nunes; Marquis G. Pagano di Melito (Italian Consul-General in Hongkong); and Marquessa Melito; Mr. H. Nolasco (Consul for Netherlands in Macao); Mr. B. de Sonna Fernandes (Consul for Siam in Macao); Mr. P. R. Bannister (Commissioner for Customs at Lappa) and Mrs. Bannister; Dr. A. Miranda (Chief Judge) and Mrs. Miranda; Dr. M. S. Lells (Attorney-General); Capt. J. Owen Pinto (commander of N. R. P. Goncalo Velho); Capt. J. C. Coelho, Jr. (commander of N. R. P. Goncalves Zanco); Lt.-Col. A. Arez (Colonial Secretary); Cmdr. S. Vieira (Harbour Master) and Mrs. Vieira; Mr. Luciano Martins (Postmaster General); Dr. G. Brito Chaves (Medical Officer); Mr. A. Vasconcellos Raposo (Colonial Treasurer) and Mrs. Vasconcellos Raposo; Mr. A. Basto (Acting-Director for Chinese Affairs); Mrs. Basto and Miss A. Basto; and others.

LEAGUE SOCIETY MEETING

Stirring Talk By Miss Freda Utley

Miss Freda Utley, well-known author of "Japan's Feet of Clay," made a very striking appeal to the public of Hongkong for aid to the Chinese soldiers at the front, in an address to the League of Nations Society at the Helena May Institute yesterday.

In the course of her address, Miss Utley remarked that the Chinese soldier bore pain with considerable bravery and she was struck by the remarkable stoicism of the soldiers at the front, whose courage and resistance against their oppressors were truly amazing.

The speaker appealed to the gathering to do all they could to aid the Chinese Red Cross which was under the very able supervision of Dr. Robert Lim, with whom she had spent some time at the front.

Miss Utley said that the other nations of the world could prevent the ruthless destruction of human beings by discontinuing the supply of oil, iron, and other necessities to Japan.

The Chinese soldiers at the front were in great need of quinine to combat the malaria epidemic which is prevalent. Malaria was responsible for many of the retreats of the Chinese army, and if this disease were overcome, there could be no doubt as to the final outcome of this war of aggression by the Japanese.

DR. WU'S REMARKS

Dr. J. H. Montgomery, Chairman of the League of Nations Society, called upon Dr. C. Y. Wu to thank the speaker.

In thanking the speaker, Dr. Wu said that he was daily receiving letters from the front, asking for medical supplies.

The United States alone had contributed more than $2,000,000 worth of medical supplies, and other nations had contributed a total of $3,000,000 worth. Everything that had been donated found its way to the front, and as far as he knew from his own record, not a single parcel had been mislaid or had not reached its destination.

The speaker was then warmly thanked by Dr. Wu after which Dr. Montgomery tendered his thanks to Miss Utley.

Mrs. P. Selwyn-Clarke said that in order to help the Red Cross, Madame Quo Tai-chi and other prominent Chinese in England were organizing a Chinese bazaar, to be held in London shortly, and the people of Hongkong could donate articles to this sale. The gifts would be packed up in a case or cases and sent to England in the next ten days, time, addressed to Madame Quo, thus making it duty-free.

The gift would be donated to the fund as "The Gift of Hongkong." Donations should be sent to her, Mrs. Selwyn-Clarke, the National Women's Relief Committee, or to Dr. C. Y. Wu.

HONGKONG AND PORTUGAL

The following telegram was sent by H.E. the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, to H.E. the Governor of Macao on Wednesday:

"On the occasion of the anniversary of the proclamation of the Portuguese Republic I have much pleasure in conveying to Your Excellency and the Colony of Macao the congratulations and sincere good wishes of myself and the Colony of Hongkong."

CHARITY BALL TO-NIGHT

Fine Programme Arranged

By Rosette

With a mannequin parade as the main attraction, excellent floor entertainment and the patronage of some of the most distinguished local people, and indeed, some of the best-known people in all China, the long-awaited Charity Ball in aid of war relief will take place at the Hongkong Hotel to-night.

Many tables have been booked and a near-capacity "house" is expected. Arrangements regarding space and other details have been carefully thought out and carried through and everything is complete for the fulfilment of one of the most brilliant events of any local season.

Piece de resistance of the evening, the mannequin parade, on which the ladies concerned have been working wholeheartedly for weeks, is expected to materialise into one of the most successful as well as ambitious shows of its kind.

IF YOU ARE TALL AND THIN—

DON'T go round looking like a telegraph pole.

Many women do not seem to be able to distinguish between slimness and thinness.

So many go to extremes of diet and end up by being painfully skinny.

But some women are naturally very thin and tall.

Whether it's natural or the result of dieting, please, you thin women, don't accentuate your bones and height.

DON'T succumb to the latest off-the-shoulder dress stem-like skirt, and piled up hair. Ignore black clinging materials.

DO, however, plan your clothes to give you a plumper appearance. It'll make your face look younger, too.

You can revel in flounces and horizontal lines and the latest full-skirted frocks.

And you should cover your shoulders with puffed drapings, and wear your hair low on your neck.

Necklaces, flowers on your bodice and long gloves are all good ideas for you.

Its main object is to illustrate the changes of the Chinese National costume through the ages. Tickets for the Ball are still obtainable at the Hongkong Women's National Relief Association, Bank of Canton Building, at $10 each and members of the public are once more invited to contribute to this good cause, for which, we confidently predict, they will receive a first-class evening's entertainment.

ROUND ABOUT

Late one rainy afternoon, a British sailor hurried into the Post Office, a large, flat, square, brown package clutched under his arm.

A few customers stood about the postal box and writing tables. The boy approached the genial, fat Chinese sitting behind the bars of the stamp window.

Handing the package to the clerk the sailor inquired the charges to England?

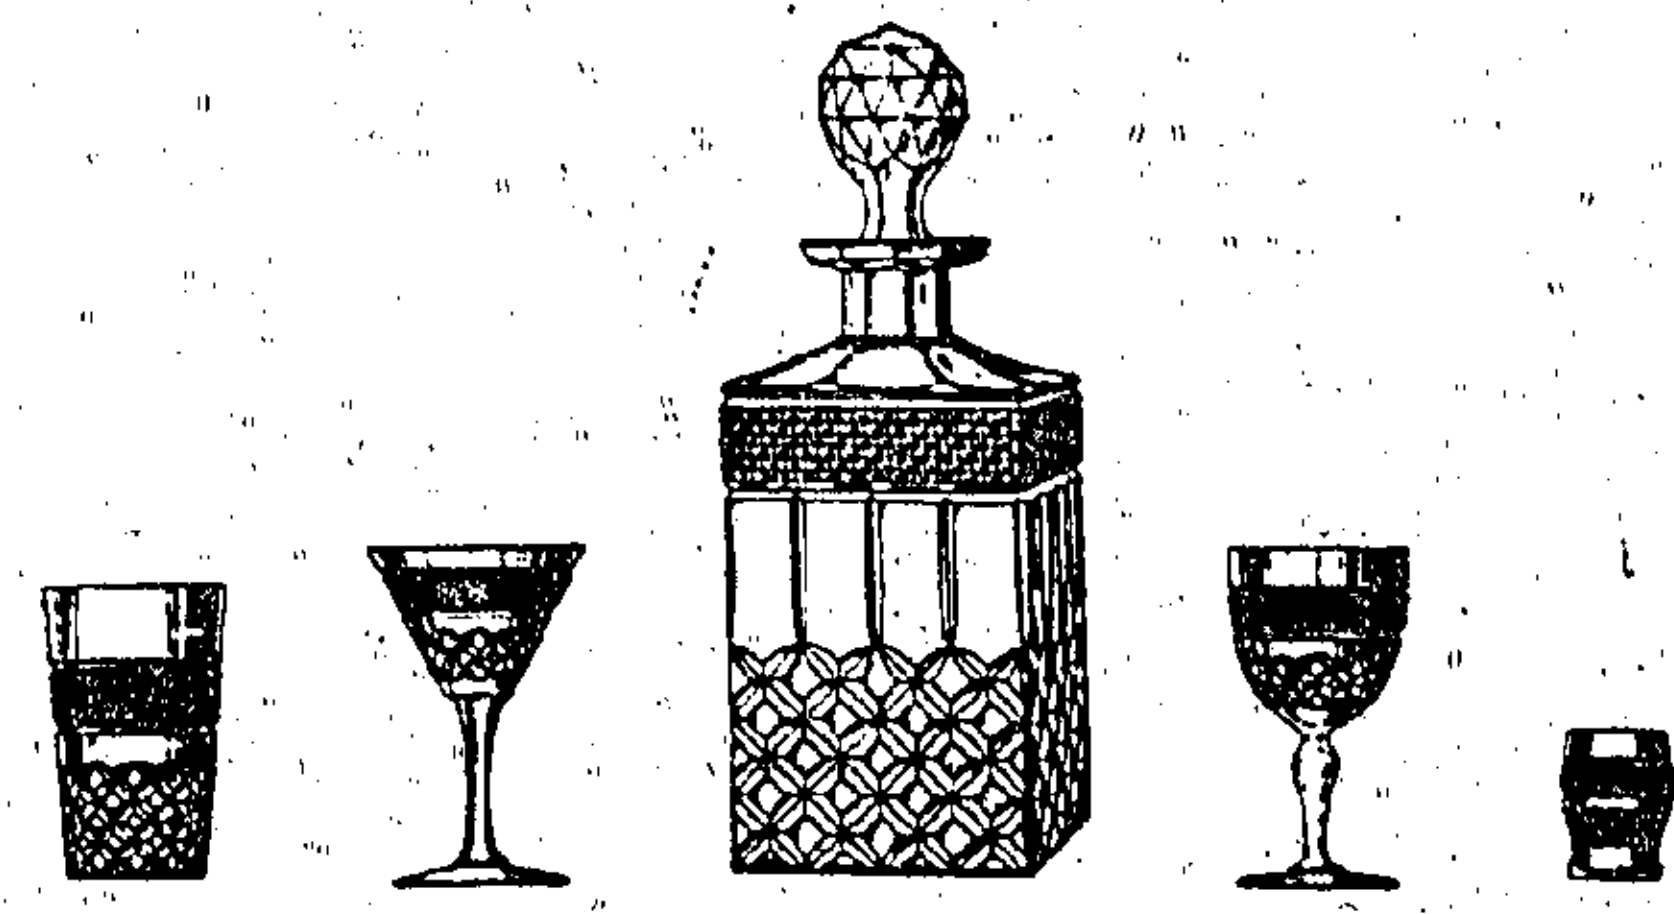

A faint expression of surprise passed across the clerk's face as he placed the package on the weighing machine. "Five dollars to England," he told the sailor. "But take off seals and 50 cents you pay for England."

The sailor appeared dubious. The Chinese postal clerk inquired what the package contained? And was informed, "It is a picture." Whereupon, he passed a knife through the window to the sailor, requesting him to break the seals.

The sailor boy debated awhile; then breaking the seals, he placed fifty cents on the counter and burst forth in conversation, informing all present. "Just a picture of my girl. I am through with her and am sending this back. Did not want the woman anyway. Five dollars is too much, alright for fifty cents."

And with hat pulled low over his eyes, swinging long arms from drooping shoulders, he disappeared significantly from the Post Office into a rainy evening.

JAPANESE PLAN FRESH DRIVE ON WUNING CITY

Crack Chinese Divisions Entrenched In Hidden Hill Positions

DIFFICULTIES FORESEEN FOR INVADERS

Wuning, October 6. FEVERISH PREPARATIONS BY THE JAPANESE FORCES in the last several days to strengthen their much depleted man-power on the Juichang-Wuning highway indicate the imminence of a fresh drive by the enemy westward along the north Kiangsi border to threaten the strongly guarded city of Wuning.

The Japanese forces, according to military despatches, have brought up strong reinforcements from the rear. To the east of the highway, the total enemy strength has been increased to three full regiments scattered from Fupengshan to Hoshiashan, while to the west of the road in the vicinity of Maanshan the enemy force has been reinforced by one regiment.

Despite the strong reinforcements, Chinese defence troops are confident to inflict severe punishment to the invaders if they attempt to thrust further westward from their present front line, which is still fully 20 kilometres to the northeast of Wuning.

Crack Chinese divisions, behind strongly entrenched positions hidden among the mountainous paths leading to Wuning, will offer the stiffest resistance to any Japanese bid to break through the defence.

TO FORM JUNCTION

Simultaneous with preparations to thrust westward from Juichang the Japanese forces on the Nanchang-Kiukiang railway to the east have increased their activities.

SUPPORT FOR MR. CHAMBERLAIN

Critics Begin To Lose Ground

COMMONS ADJOURNED

London, Oct. 6. Opposition to the proposed adjournment of the House of Commons to-day until November 1, the date to which the House was adjourned last July, was offered by Mr. Clement Attlee, Leader of the Labour Opposition, and Sir Archibald Sinclair, Leader of the Liberal Opposition.

Mr. Attlee considered that the House should maintain a continuous watch on international affairs.

Sir Archibald Sinclair said that he thought the Prime Minister should have a rest to enable the departments to adjust themselves to the rapidly changing situation, but that Parliament should meet on October 13.

The House was divided and decided by 313 votes to 150 to adjourn at the close to-day until November 11.

The concluding day of the debate witnesses a gathering of momentum on the part of the hitherto doubtful minded section of the Government back-benchers in favour of the Prime Minister.

Critics began to lose ground in the latter part of yesterday after the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir John Simon's speech and the Government majority is likely to be bigger than at one time appeared probable.—Reuter.

"LET GERMANS KNOW THE TRUTH"

Dean's Plea For Broadcast News

The Dean of St. Paul's (Dr. Matthews), preaching in St. Paul's Cathedral, said:—

The greatest factor for peace is the desire of the common people for peace. Mr. Lansbury was right when he said that there is not a man or woman in the country who does not long for peace.

He might have gone farther; the masses of the population everywhere dread and detest war and desire peace. Can this force be made available? Can it get to work in time to save disaster?

I have a practical proposal—not mine, but Lord Listowel's. It is this: broadcast shortly and effectively in German and Italian. I do not mean propaganda, but news.

Let the common people in Germany and Italy have a chance of knowing what propaganda has kept from them. Let them know that everything which justice could conceivably demand has been given.

Let them know the feeling of the country. Let them know that they may be led to the slaughter for a cause they do not understand.

Overcome the lies of propaganda by truth; and, above all, don't wait until the war has started—do it now.

The amount of money remitted to China to date has reached $300,000,000. Hence it is safe to estimate that the amount remitted by the overseas Chinese in this whole year will double the amount remitted in early part of the year.

BLACKPOOL CONFERENCE SENDS MESSAGE TO GENERALISSIMO

Trade Union Condemns Use Of Poison Gas

Hankow, October 6. A resolution "to do something within our power to assist in strengthening the Chinese resistance to Japanese military fascist aggression" was passed at a mass meeting of the Trade Union Congress in Blackpool, England, on September 8, according to information received here.

In a message of sympathy to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, the Union declared:—

"THE MASS MEETING OF BLACKPOOL PEOPLE AND DELEGATES, attending the Trade Union Congress Conference, send their warmest greetings of solidarity to the struggling Chinese people, and we pledge ourselves to do something within our power to assist in strengthening their resistance to Japanese military fascist aggression.

"We express the horror of our, ragged humanity against the barbarous slaughter of tens of thousands of defenceless Chinese by the continued bombardment of open towns, and which constitutes an attempt to destroy the morale of the Chinese by terrorist acts.

"We equally condemn the inhuman practice of using poison gas against the Chinese, and the criminal acts practiced by the Japanese in areas they have occupied in China.

"We recommend to the British people that no one should purchase Japanese goods, and that an embargo be placed on all goods for Japan.

"We further ask the British Government to grant the fullest assistance to the Chinese and urge the Powers to act in demanding the withdrawal of the Japanese forces from China, so as to guarantee her full sovereignty."

Those who spoke at the meeting included Mr. G. Hicks, Member of Parliament, Mr. H. Findlay, Member of the Executive Committee of the British Trade Union Congress, and Mr. Chu Hsueh-fan, Chinese Workers Delegate to the International Labour Conference.—Central News.

In the Fukien province military training camps have been established everywhere, and investigation of the number of able-bodied men in the province has been completed. At the same time extensive propaganda is being carried on to inform the masses of the obligation of joining the militia and its significance.

Gen. Syrov Takes Over From Benes

PRESIDENT'S HOPES FOR FUTURE

Prague, Oct. 6.

President Benes' resignation has been accepted unanimously by the Council of Ministers. General Syrov has been appointed acting-President, according to an announcement made over the radio last night.

The announcement stated that the new Government's policy will be based on the equality of the three peoples, Czechs, Slovaks and Carpathian Russians.

In a letter of resignation full of pathos, but which shows the bravery and courage of the man who successfully kept the Czechs calm and orderly throughout the crisis, Dr. Benes declares:

"The historic events of the past few days have changed the entire circumstances so completely that I feel that my remaining in office may constitute an obstacle to the new conditions which now confront our state.

"We have now constituted a new Government which will be a Government of calm and order, of economic efforts and social reconstruction, a Government which will aim chiefly at internal development, and I am convinced that it will succeed in its efforts.

"I realised that in these new conditions it is essential for me to withdraw from office.

"That does not mean that I am evading my duties and responsibilities in this difficult situation, or that I am leaving the vessel in a storm. I only wish to facilitate the development of the policy of the Government both in external and internal affairs."—Reuter.

HISTORY WILL JUDGE

Prague, Oct. 6. Dr. Benes intended to resign as soon as the Munich Agreement had been signed but felt it advisable to wait until a strong government had been constituted.

In a broadcast to the nation in which he explained his resignation, Dr. Benes said that the Government had done all it could to reach an understanding with the Sudetens.

"But our internal problem developed into an international crisis," he declared. "Four great Powers reached a decision, without our even being consulted. I shall not utter a word of criticism, but history will be the judge."

The ex-President said that the nation had gone through the ordeal heroically and emphasised that Czechoslovakia must now recast its policy so that there can be no cause of conflict with her neighbours.

"Our state in future will be more homogeneous," he stated, "and I have the greatest confidence in our future as a nation."—Reuter.

SLOVAK SETTLEMENT

Prague, Oct. 6. An amicable settlement of the Slovak question is indicated as a result of a meeting of the Slovak Parliamentary Group at Zilina yesterday, at which it was decided to form a common front of all Slovak peoples, including the Popular Party and the National Party and the Agrarian Party.

The final nationality statute as drafted by the Hodza administration was accepted by the joint meeting as a basis for negotiations with the Prague Government on the question of Slovak autonomy.—Reuter.

SERIOUS INCIDENT

Prague, Oct. 6. A somewhat serious incident is reported from the Hungarian border where a band of several Hungarian regulars crossed into the Czech state and attacked municipal buildings at Fele-dince. Some shots were fired but it is not known if there were any casualties.

The Hungarian note to Czechoslovakia was not worded as an ultimatum but did, nevertheless, envisage a reply by to-day.

Hungarian official quarters were inclined to-day to take a reasonable attitude and recognise the necessity of letting the new Government get into its stride.—Reuter.

Four new cars have been added to the highway service between Kulyang and Swatow. It may be recalled that recently nine new cars were made available.

NOTICE

The Public is hereby notified that on and from Thursday, October 6th, additional expresses will run between Kowloon and Canton as follows:—

Japanese Planes Busy In Hupeh, Kiangsi

Hankow, October 6. Japanese planes were again active over Hupeh and Kiangsi yesterday, bombing open towns and conducting reconnaissance. Twenty-four enemy planes, in three squadrons, were sighted reconnoitering over Ketien, east of Wuchang, in the afternoon. One squadron, numbering nine planes, headed for the Wuhan area.

Chinese pursuits at once took to the air, from an undisclosed base, to intercept them. A spectacular aerial combat developed, and the Japanese aircraft were repulsed. All Chinese machines returned safely to their base.

In the morning, 17 Japanese bombers passed over Ichang heading west, apparently attempting to bomb Chungking again. But owing to Chinese preparedness, they returned after circling over the Hupeh-Szechwan border regions.

SEVERELY BOMBED Nanchang, capital of Kiangsi, was severely bombed by nine Japanese craft in the morning. They dumped 16 explosives at the densely-populated section of the city, causing over 50 civilian casualties and the demolition of about 60 houses.

Chinese anti-aircraft batteries went into action.

Later another squadron of 10 Japanese planes came over into the city without dropping bombs. Yungshu, south of Teban on the Kiukiang-Nanchang Railway, which was bombed on Tuesday, was subjected to another attack yesterday. Over 10 bombs were rained on the town. Extensive reconnaissance was also conducted there by the enemy planes.—Central News.

DR. BENES FOR NOBEL PEACE PRIZE?

London, Oct. 6.

M. Leon Blum, writing in his Paris paper, expressed sympathy to Dr. Eduard Benes, the Czech President, who resigned yesterday, and said that he was a friend of France.

M. Blum suggested that Dr. Benes should be given the Nobel Peace Prize for his part in connection with the Czechoslovak problem.—Reuter.

SMALL SAVINGS INCREASE

London, Oct. 6.

The Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies in his annual report gives a table of figures of small savings in the registered provident societies of the country. It is shown that funds of the Societies have risen from £254,000,000 at the end of 1933 to £215,500,000 at the end of 1936. There was an increase of £107,000,000 during the year 1936.—British Wireless.

YANKEES BEAT CHICAGO CUBS

First Game Of World Series

Chicago, Oct. 5.

As generally expected, the New York Yankees, American League champions, drew first blood in the World Baseball Series to-day by winning the first game against Chicago Cubs, winners of the National League pennant, by three runs to one.

A crowd of 40,000 chilly baseball enthusiasts sat under cloudy skies to see the Yankees bat first.

At the end of the second inning, the Yankees were leading by 2-0. In this inning Lou Gehrig and Bill Dickey scored.

The Cubs scored on the third as the result of a single by Hack which brought Collins home.

In the sixth frame, however, the Yankees registered another run to lead 3-1, Henrich scoring.

NEAR FIGHT

There was nearly a fight in the eighth inning between Lou Gehrig, the Yankees' famous first-baseman, and the umpire, Mr. Moran. Gehrig protested, strongly against the umpire's ruling that he was out from what was later announced as a foul tip, caught by the catcher, Gabby Hartnett.

In the ninth frame, Russell, the Cubs' veteran relief pitcher substituted for Bill Lee.

Neither team was able to score after the sixth inning.

Ruffing, for the Yankees, struck out five batters in the first five innings, and pitched throughout for his side.

The following were the scores.

Yankees	3	12	1
Cubs	1	9	1

EIGHTH EXTRA RACE MEETING

Two Day Programme: Desert Chief And Silkylight Duel

(BY "LAST QUARTER")

The above meeting, commonly referred to as the "Double Tenth" Meeting, will be a two day affair, the chief attraction being the October Handicap to-morrow afternoon and the Double Tenth Plate on Monday. These two main events are confined to China Ponies and all the fastest racers undergoing training have entered with the result that punters can look forward to interesting finishes.

The eight events scheduled for the first day are all handicaps, and judging by the excellent racing at the last meeting, it is anticipated that to-morrow's programme will be just as keenly contested. All the Northern jockeys participating at the Seventh Extra Meeting are still with us and will be riding over the week-end, which should contribute in no small measure to the success of the meeting.

As Elizabeth has been promoted to the "B" Class it would be natural to assume that Just In Time should be very near winning this event from the 2 Mile Post. However, she will have to be at her very best to withstand the challenge of King's Lead, my fancy for this race. The Dynasty candidate appears an entirely different pony to the from displayed during the first half year's racing, and on Wednesday morning did quite an impressive gallop.

Rose Queen (187 lbs.) should run well as the distance is more to her liking but at the same time she has rather a heavy burden to carry. Lancashire Boy is a fair outsider. This grey is gradually improving and if the good work keeps on it will not be long before he scores a win. Pinfarthings is so bad at the gate that it is not worth risking an investment unless with prospects of "big money" in return. Laughing Girl and Tyne are the best of the other entrants, though I am inclined to think the distance is against them. Tampa Bay will probably find the opposition too strong and at best may just about secure a place.

JORDAN HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)

Gold Coin is still in excellent condition and will be very near winning again. Estover is to be taken out by Mr. Raymond and I look to this grey to make a great fight of it at the finish. Salvage Master is another contender for honours, though personally I would favour her chances a great deal more if the distance was a mile or over. Royal Highness is a moody animal but as this chestnut is racing in a lower class, her chances should not be overlooked. Borachito is one that may possibly cause an upset here, as this diminutive grey is very fast and if nursed carefully can produce a good finish. I have no news at all of Desert Star, not having seen this chestnut during the early morning training. Dekko is consciously expected to place here but I think this pony is not quite ready yet. Valorous, if the going is soft, has a slight chance.

OCTOBER HANDICAP

The main event of the day will be the anticipated battle royal between Silkylight and Desert Chief over the Champions distance. In a mile race I am of the opinion that Desert Chief has the measure of Silkylight but over one and a quarter miles the issue is doubtful and punters should see a great struggle with jockeyship probably proving to be the deciding factor. Bear Claw should fill third place, but I am intrigued and will follow with much interest King's Warden's performance as this great racer has only 140 lbs. to look after.

NATHAN HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)

This mile and a quarter race for "E" Class China ponies should once again go to Expression Time. This grey won comfortably at the last

SENIOR LEAGUE PROSPECTS

CLUB TO MEET EASTERN: NAVY SHOULD DEFEAT POLICE ON HOME GROUND

Will Kowloon Hold Middlesex At Sookunpoo To-Morrow?

Kwong Wah Meet Royal Scots On Sunday

(BY C. I. R. E.)

THE SENIOR LEAGUE FOOTBALL PROGRAMME for the week-end comprises five matches all of which will be played on Island grounds and, though there are no major clashes, the programme nevertheless includes one or two interesting matches. Though the weather has not been too welcome during the past few days it is hoped that Jupiter Pluvius will not interfere to too great an extent with the Senior League fixtures.

Eastern, strong contenders for honours this season but who have yet to be fully extended, should drive home the issue without much difficulty against the Club seniors on the Valley ground. But one must bear in mind that the Club had the distinction of subduing the Middlesex a week or so after the military side had triumphed against a strong Chinese Federation team in a charity match.

Last week Club almost took full points from St. Joseph's but had to be content to share four goals. On the whole Eastern, with the recent inclusion of Ho Kar-keung, a very fine forward who made his debut in a charity fixture last week, should win.

KOWLOON F. C. will travel to Sookunpoo where at 4.30 they will be opposed to the Middlesex and this should prove the most interesting match of the day. The mainlanders did well last Saturday to draw with the Royal Scots and they now have a forward line led by Blake, that is rapidly building up a fine combination.

Known as a team to spring surprise results, Kowloon will be carefully watched by the soldiers. Middlesex, on the other hand, have two very steady defenders in Watson and Sheehan with Jackson an excellent man between the sticks. Middlesex will be the probable winners.

On the Navy ground at Causeway Bay, the Police will be entertained by the Senior Service and the home team should win. The custodians of the law played promising football in their first League match of the season against South China "B" last Sunday and it was only in the latter stages that they fell away badly to allow the Chinese to get a tally of four goals, bringing their total six the Police having scored two.

Brittain, who has turned out for the policemen for many seasons, is again entrusted with pivotal duties and he may be regarded as always being a tireless worker in defence. With the return shortly of Johnston the police attack should be strengthened. This is a department of Police football that is a constant worry to the selectors. A fair game should result with the Navy favourites.

Supporters of Kwong Wah, "babies" of the senior league will travel in full force to Sookunpoo on Sunday afternoon to witness their encounter against the Royal Scots. Kwong Wah have a very useful side and has yet to gain experience in big football. In their first match, Kwong Wah were defeated by South China "B" by two goals to nil while last Sunday the Navy only just managed to share two points with the Kowloon team. Kwong Wah's progress is being watched with interest and their side includes such stalwart players as Henry Young and Cheuk Shek-kam. The Scotsmen will probably win but Kwong Wah may be relied on to give their opponents a good game.

Trams and buses travelling eastward on Sunday will be packed with Caroline Hill supporters all bent on seeing South China "A" meet St. Joseph's on the Causeway Bay ground. The result may be regarded as a foregone conclusion but the Saints are good stickers and David Leonard will be a thorn in the Chinese defence. Lee Wai-tong has yet to make his appearance in a League match but it is probable that he will not be turning out. There is no doubt about the all-round brilliance of the Chinese attack the understanding between the three inside forwards, Lai Shiu-wing, Fung King-cheon and Kwok Hing-kee being uncanny. Tang Kwong-sun and Lau Tau-man, a very clever Shanghai player, complete one of the most formidable attacks in Colony football at present.

CONGRATULATIONS
The Middlesex Regiment are to be congratulated on their truly splendid win last Saturday at Caroline Hill at the expense of the strongly-favoured South China "A". Though it was an odd-goal victory, nevertheless it was well deserved.

The soldiers pulled through many hectic moments in their own citadel, especially in the second half. Jackson, in goal, did his part and well too. He saved a penalty from Fung King-cheung which is no mean feat for Fung kicks with deadly accuracy especially from the 12-yards spot.

At Kowloon, the Royal Scots, who on the previous week received a severe trouncing at the hands of South China "A" made a much better showing and were unlucky not to have gathered both points. The Kowloon F. C. notching the equaliser through Dennis Blake in the last minute. Blake's return to soccer this season is certainly giving added impetus to the Kowloon attack and Victor White is as steady as ever.

LEONARD'S THRUST
Club and St. Joseph's shared four goals at the Valley and it was wise on the part of the Saints, in the second half, when A. J. Husain moved up from back into his customary pivotal berth to allow David Leonard to infuse more thrust in the forward line. In their opening match this season, the Club surprised supporters by gaining a snap victory over the Middlesex at Sookunpoo.

Kwong Wah, newcomers to Senior League football, who were defeated by South China "B" in their debut match at Caroline Hill, were unlucky not to snatch two points from the Navy at Kowloon last Sunday being robbed of this only in the last minute of the game when the sailors penetrated their goal.

Playing at home, South China "B" gathered six goals against the police, Chan Tak-fai a very useful, centre-forward, being top scorer. The police played well in the first half but fell away badly in the latter stages of the game when the Chinese got four past McHardy.

Scout's Endurance Earns High Award

For courage and endurance of a high order the World Chief Scout (Lord Baden-Powell) has awarded the Cornwell Scout Badge of Lone Rover Cameron Blanch, of Endlo (Q.). This is the highest honour a Scout can win, and is the first of its kind to be awarded in Queensland.

A few years ago Blanch, who has been raised to farm and bush life, met with an accident while cutting timber. He was using a springboard two lifts up, about 3ft. from the ground.

A branch cracked and fell. He saw it coming and jumped, but the branch struck him before he reached the ground.

At the Brisbane General Hospital it was found that the whole of the nerves of his left arm had been torn. Throughout, he displayed the greatest courage while undergoing treatment, and was discharged from hospital with his arm completely paralysed.

He returned to Endlo and obtained a job in a sawmill. It was not long before he could perform all the tasks in the mill with his one good arm.

Later he bought horses and practised harnessing until he could hitch a team properly, and became expert in handling them. He had his axe handle altered for use with one arm, and practised with it until he became proficient. Then he began taking contracts to cut timber, even to trimming railway sleepers.

Blanch was decorated by the Governor (Sir Leslie Wilson), State Chief Scout, on September 9.

meeting, and being equally fit, if not in better condition, the additional 11 lbs. should not hinder his chances. Wild Life will be the chief danger to Expression Time, as the Dunbar entrant in her last outing did not appear to have been quite ready and the two weeks additional work should make her strip to-morrow pounds better. New Star is also coming along nicely and should run well in view of the low impost of 149 lbs. Moonlight View is looking well and may secure a place; the same remark applies to Red Feather.

KATOOMBA HANDICAP

The field should be on the large side for this mile event for "C" Class Australian ponies. Twilight Star has been moving nicely recently and will be a good one to follow, though he will be fully extended by Violet Queen. This latter is in excellent condition and it would not surprise me to see this black mare repeat her recent success. Roofly should be watched in view of her last performance but I do not think Cape York is likely to repeat or create another surprise. A Lovely Time did a fair gallop on Wednesday morning but I think she is still a little backward in form. Perfect Day has done some consistently good training but this chestnut is rather slow in getting into stride during a race. This event is the first leg of the Daily Double.

JORDAN HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

In this very mediocre field I fancy the chances of Gold Sovereign and Tempest, although Flybynight will battle it out all the way. A very good outsider is Cuban Love, as this grey is fit and very keen in his daily work. Diogenes, though, at his best, is still a danger. The Leopard, if started, should not be left unbacked as this pony is improving rapidly and is about due for another win almost any time now. Good Morning has been out of condition for quite a while and though on the upward trend has not sufficiently impressed me as to consider him except as an outsider.

AUSTIN HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

The second leg of the Daily Double should be quite interesting as judging from the handicap a very even race is indicated. Bistre should find the distance to his liking and may annex the honours. Rose Evelyn has improved somewhat and will also be quite close. Jungle Jim and Soldier of China are both fit and the distance should suit these racers. Jungle Jim appears to be the better of the two. Wild Cat is another promising candidate but I am afraid that his tendency to pull may somewhat diminish his chances.

NATHAN HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

Expansion Time and Elizabeth appear to me the most in this one and a quarter mile event. The latter did a wonderful gallop on Wednesday and must stand a good chance, though she has yet to prove her prowess over distance. Rob Roy although heavily weighted is not out of it altogether and should at least secure a place. Commencement Bay ran a good race the last time and will again be dangerous. Jobber's racing form and training work is at such variance that I cannot make out the actual capabilities of this chestnut, but at 145 lbs. he looks a tempting bet. My final selections for the first day's racing will appear to-morrow morning.
